State Clamps Quarantine on Pear, Juniper Plants

The California Department of Agriculture has adopted an emergency plant quarantine to prevent the spread into commercial pear orchards of a rust fungus disease recently found in Contra Costa County, it was announced this week.

The disease attacks pear and juniper plants, and spreads to pear trees from infected junipers. The fungus attacks the fruits of pear trees as well as the foliage and occasionally attacks the twigs.

THE DISEASE was first discovered in Lafayette, and Arthur Seeley, county agricultural commissioner, has announced an all-out program of personal contact with homeowners in the Lafayette area in an attempt to eradicate the fungus.

Seeley has reported that if the disease continues to spread throughout the county, the county-state personal contact and quarantine program will extend to all of the county's residents.

William E. Warne, state director of agriculture, said that pear-juniper rust is a serious pest of pears in Europe. Since the discovery of the disease in Lafayette, he said, it has been reported on both pear trees and juniper plants in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada. These are the only records of its occurrence in North America.

The new quarantine regulation designates pear fruits and all species and varieties of pear and juniper plants, and parts of the plants for propagation, as hosts and carriers of the disease.

IT PROHIBITS the movement of any of the prohibited materials from the area under quarantine (Lafayette) unless they are accompanied by a certificate from Seeley's office. It was indicated this applies to area nurseries as well as individual homeowners.

Most of the pear trees in the quarantined area are remnants of old commercial pear orchards which have been subdivided for residences.

Junipers have been used widely in landscaping the Lafayette area, and are prized more highly than the relatively few pear trees.

In an effort to eradicate the disease, pear trees and juniper plants will be sprayed five times at 10-day intervals and all visible affected juniper plants will be destroyed.

PRINCIPALS AND SCIENCE instructors from local high schools were guests recently at a luncheon given by the Chemical Industry Activities Committee of East Contra Costa County. Shown are, left to right, Parkes Matzsinger, C.I.A.C. representative from Mt. Copper Company, S. W. Walgren, Acalanes High School principal, and J. A. Lewis, Miramonte High School principal. The committee's program endeavors to interest and stimulate students in a science career.

Board Again Asks for Road Study

Supervisors Won't Accept Sauer's Cost Estimates

The County Board of Supervisors has asked County Public Works Director Victor Sauer "once more" to make new complete studies on all alternate routes for the relocation of Bear Creek Road.

Board Chairman Mel Nielsen of Lafayette made the request Tuesday after supervisors refused to accept as complete the estimated cost figures which Sauer presented for two of the alternates.

Bear Creek Road, north of Orinda and the Happy Valley area of Lafayette, has been permanently closed by construction of the East Bay Municipal Utility District's large Briones Reservoir.

THE UTILITY district, which will inundate the road to construct the dam, has agreed to build a replacement road for the county at a location selected by the supervisors.

At Tuesday's meeting, Nielsen accused Sauer of having the public works department "sighted down one line on this project from the very start."

The board chairman added, "Every time we try to budge you we are swung back on the same old track on the Black Hills ridge top. Now, once more, we ask for the complete cost of these roads, including rights-of-way."

Sauer has favored the Black Hills Road, south of the proposed reservoir, as the replacement routing. He has been supported by two independent county-employed engineers.

BUT RESIDENTS of the Sleepy Hollow area in Orinda, the Alhambra Valley area and the Happy Valley area in Lafayette have opposed this road and have suggested that the route follow the north edge of the reservoir.

A citizens committee appointed by Nielsen for the purpose of studying the problem recommended against the Black Hills Road and suggested that the road be built in the Charles Hill Road area.

The supervisors opposed the Charles Hill suggestion on the basis that such a road would not serve to replace the old Bear Creek Road.

Supervisors have announced they will make a final decision on the road relocation matter at 11 a.m. January 10. The public hearing on the question has already been closed.

SAUER TOLD the board this week that the Black Hills route would be 6.4 miles long and would cost $3,688,000, and the alternate passing west of the Briones Dam and west and north of the reservoir would be 7.3 miles long and would cost $5,551,000.

He pointed out that EBMUD is legally required to pay for only the cheapest suitable and adequate replacement road.

Noting that the supervisors are considering three alternate routes, Nielsen instructed Sauer to prepare a cost estimate of moving the road northward from the Black Hills alternate.

The board chairman said he wants an estimate on moving the road off the ridge top onto the slope leading up from the reservoir's southern shore as a means of relieving objections to the route raised by area homeowners.

Transit 'Essential' Says Board's Endorsing Letter

The County Board of Supervisors called the Bay Area Rapid Transit plans "essential" to the region's growth, in a letter which was sent only a few days after the December 1 deadline for county endorsement.

The letter was addressed to Adrian Falk, president of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, and it contained several suggestions.

It referred to Lafayette's desire that the transit route in its area be on or adjacent to the freeway, right of way, and not following the Sacramento Northern Railroad tracks.

IT ALSO asked that new financing be found, so that the plans can be enlarged to include service to Antioch, and by implication, Concord.

Both the supervisors and Mayors Conference have discussed ways of finding new financing, it said.

Another precaution, the letter suggests, is that the district acquire in advance the rights of way required for the first stage of the work.

It referred to preferences of the Contra Costa cities. Five of them, including Concord and Walnut Creek, have submitted their opinions and desires.

WALNUT CREEK wants a complete financial report on the possibility of running the tracks in a "cut" through downtown Walnut Creek, rather than elevated.

Concord wants extension of the tracks to Concord, with a terminal in Concord, as part of the first phase construction.

El Cerrito has also asked for below grade tracks in the downtown area; Richmond wants extension of the route to its downtown area; San Pablo has said it favors any effective form of rapid transit.

Due to the probable delay of any concrete action by the district, no action has been taken by Martinez, Antioch, Pittsburg, Brentwood, Hercules and Pinole.

In the glass case just inside the main entry, Pinocchio dolls in various shapes and sizes are on display through the courtesy of collector Mrs. Oran Barlow.

International dolls assembled in a showcase include a colorful variety from the collection of Mrs. Barrett Coates of Oakland, the aunt of Mrs. Richard Tharp, a member of the Friends of the Orinda Library.

Among the most unusual are the dolls of Greece and Turkey as well as a Japanese doll whose head is made of crushed oyster shells.

Baby dolls of bisque, including a Kaiser Wilhelm German bisque doll manufactured at the time of birth of Kaiser Wilhelm, are among the novel and delicate antique dolls from the rare collection of Mrs. D. L. Larieu of Oakland.

In addition to the collection of dolls, the Orinda Art Center is sponsoring an exhibit of artwork from the seventh and eighth grade Pine Grove classes of Mr. Jesse. Mrs. Spencer Archer, assisted by Mrs. Wellington Ray, arranged for both exhibits which will be on view during the regular library hours.

Chamber Asked To Help Beautification Program

A plea was made Tuesday for the Orinda Chamber of Commerce to actively support the Orinda Beautification Committee's program for cleaning up the community.

Mrs. Paul Pollaczek, chairman of the committee, appeared at the chamber meeting and said her group needs more active support from merchants, garden clubs and residents of the community.

She pointed out that Scout groups are cooperating with the committee in anti-litter clean ups in the business areas from time to time. Mrs. Pollaczek added that the Balancers of Orinda, an auto club, cleaned the community Sunday.

The chamber voted to enlist the aid of the county's new full-time litter control officer in keeping local streets and curb areas cleaner.

The group also authorized the expenditure of $20 to help the beautification committee decorate the tree in Bryant Circle and the planter tubs in the business areas.

Decorating for the holiday season is done by the beautification committee and local garden clubs, and Mrs. Pollaczek suggested that next year the chamber, the committee and the Orinda Art Center work together in decorating the community.

A question and answer period will follow the discussions by the three county representatives.

York Is New President Of Sleepy Hollow Group

The newly elected board of directors of the Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association has chosen Palmer York Jr. of 33 Irving Lane, as its president for the coming year, William D. Leonard, retiring president, announced today.

York is senior partner of York & Co., investment banking firm and members of the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange. He is past president of the University Club of Alameda County, the Yale Alumni Association of Northern California and has been active in club and association affairs for many years.

RE-ELECTED to the vice presidency was James B. Dupuis. The new secretary is Mrs. Vernon E. Louis, and Loren Furtado will serve his second term as treasurer.

Leonard also stated that the past year was the most active one since the founding of the association. Two new tennis courts have been completed, and this if the first step towards providing year-round recreational facilities. Total capital improvements were over $20,000 this year, and total assets of the association have passed the $140,000 mark.

As a result of these increased activities, only four memberships are available for purchase at approximately $400 each. This is the smallest number ever offered and is primarily due to members moving from the area since the association was formed. Mrs. Harlan C. Dupuis, 30 Tappan Lane, Orinda, whose phone number is CL 4-2671, is chairman of the membership committee.

OTHER NEW members of the board of directors are Walter E. Estes, Robert M. Davis and Albert C. Rawson.

"The association is looking forward to another active year," York stated in an interview.

"Each year we try to improve our physical plant and add new facilities for the enjoyment of the members, and this coming year will be no exception. When our plans are finally completed, we expect Sleepy Hollow Park to be one of the finest recreation centers in our area."

Jewel the Mare Recovering from 150-Foot Tumble

Jewel, a Palomino mare of Buckeye Ranch, Lafayette, is swollen and tender today, and full of antibiotics and dextrose, but very much alive.

It's still somewhat of a surprise to Bob and Nancy Kenney, owners of Buckeye Ranch at the end of Springhill Road. Jewel underwent a rigorous 24 hours, beginning Sunday when she tumbled 150 feet into a gulley.

Two young girls, Frances Howard and Bonnie Smith, were leading the 10-year-old mare and another horse to a pasture when a section of the muddy trail gave way and Jewel tumbled over the steep hill, ending up in a narrow, steep gulley.

THE GIRLS ran back to the stable, where Keeney called a veterinarian, Al Soares, and other help. They tried to free the horse, but failed.

About 7 p.m. Jim Martino of Lafayette drove a bulldozer up the canyon. While Louis Santos of Walnut Creek held a flashlight, Martino bulldozed a 10-foot-deep, 50-foot-long approach into the gulley where Jewel lay.

Keeney said Martino was working in pitch black by the sheer cliff and couldn't see the back of his hand. "Not many men would have done it," he said.

Early Monday, Keeney, Eddie Defreze and Jack Whitestone of Walnut Creek went back to Jewel to make the final try. They brought in ropes and a chain tackle.

THEY LOOPED ropes around Jewel and got her on her feet, then left her to regain some strength, supported by the chain tackle. Having lain so long in the gulley, it took Jewel some time to realize she was standing.

At about 3 p.m. Keeney, Santos and Defreze went back to bring her out. For an hour they slowly made their way back to the stable.

"We didn't have much hope," Keeney said, "but the vet filled her full of antibiotics and dextrose. She's still very tender, but she's going to recover."

Seven Area Students Honored By Kiwanis

Seven young men, outstanding examples of the youth in central Contra Costa, were recipients of the Kiwanis Achievement Award at a trophy luncheon given by the Pleasant Hill Kiwanis Club on Wednesday at the Nut Bowl.

Scott Sherman, athletic coordinator at the University of California, introduced the coaches and presented the awards. Sherman commended the Kiwanis Club for its effort in stimulating interest in all around achievement and giving public recognition to the seven youths.

COMPARING life to a football field, Sherman told the boys that the same challenges and competition exist in college and business, that hard work and the "110 per cent effort needed on the field" are also needed to achieve goals in life.

Expressing confidence that the same competitive spirit both on the field and in the classroom, coupled with the leadership displayed by these young men would carry them through college to successful careers, Sherman concluded his address and introduced the coaches.

Each coach gave a synopsis of the qualifications of his award winning student, prior to the presentation of the 15½-inch engraved trophies by Sherman.

QUALITIES shared by the seven young men included academic averages of B plus or better, in college preparatory courses; participation in sports other than football, varsity football, student government, leadership and high moral standards.

Trustees Will Study State Aid

Trustees of the Orinda Union School District will meet Monday night to discuss the possibility of removing the district from the state aid program for school building construction.

The school board met last Monday, but adjourned their agenda until this week because two of the five trustees were absent. Trustees Ruth Gilwee and Philip Bush are attending the California School Boards' convention in Southern California.

Superintendent Joseph Sheaff will submit studies on the state aid program as they relate to the Orinda district's proposal to construct an administration building.

The only business transacted last week was the awarding of a contract for replacing windows at the Orinda School to the Universal Window Corporation of Berkeley. The firm's bid of $3715 was the only one received by the district.

Man of Year Committee Seeks Help of Public

With the year drawing rapidly to a close, the 1960 Orinda Man (or Woman?) of the Year Committee has announced it will hold its first meeting next week to begin selection of the local resident who will win the award this year.

Howard said the public is urged to submit suggestions in order to help the committee make its selection. These suggestions may be sent to Man of the Year Committee, P. O. Box 147, Orinda.

Once again The Sun is sponsoring the Man of the Year award, and the committee has been asked to select the person deemed to have contributed the most to the welfare of the community during 1960; past years' activities will be taken into consideration also.

Your recommendations will be turned over to the committee. Although the award is sponsored by The Sun, selection of the person is entirely up to the committee.

Announcement of the person chosen as Man of the Year will be made in the December 30 issue of The Sun. Later this individual will receive a certificate from The Sun.

New County Program Assists Property Owners

A new program to assist property owners in making street improvements while avoiding the high cost of special assessment district bond levies will be initiated by Contra Costa County on January 10.

The Board of Supervisors agreed Tuesday to allow the property owners in the area to pay for projects in five annual installments at 5½ per cent interest on the unpaid balance.

A top limit of $40,000 was set for such projects by the supervisors. Among the projects pending at the request of property owners are improvements for Ichabod Lane, Orinda.

IN OTHER business the board: Reappointed Paul H. Woods to the Contra Costa County Mosquito Abatement District board of trustees.

Took under study the legality of a proposal to exempt from county licensing laws guide dogs placed for short periods in the care of local 4-H club members by Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., of San Rafael.

Directed the district attorney to abate as a public nuisance an abandoned and partially burned dwelling at 138 Montecito Crescent, Walnut Creek, belonging to the late Hiram T. Dewey.

Authorized a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons damaging or destroying street and traffic signs in the unincorporated areas.

APPROPRIATED $4850 for paving of portions of Happy Valley Road in the vicinity of Happy Valley School, Lafayette, as a student pedestrian protection measure.

Accepted Vallecito Lane in Subdivision 2621 near Walnut Creek into the county highway system.

Adopted a fee schedule as part of the county's first grading and excavating ordinance to be effective today, based on $5 for filling and $10 for plan checking plus a fee graduated upward from $5 depending on the volume of each excavation or embankment.

REHEARSING FOR their dance production of "The First Christmas Tree" are, from left to right, Barbara Darmstedt, Susie Norton, Linda Bridges and Joan Whitehead. The modern dance will be one of the presentations of the Acalanes High School music and dance departments' annual Christmas program, to be presented in the high school gymnasium at 8 p.m. Thursday. # Students Will Present Special Holiday Program

Each Christmas season for 21 years, the music and modern dance departments of Acalanes High School have offered a special Christmas program for the entire community of Lafayette.

Parents now attend to watch their children take part in a program that they themselves recall with fondness and nostalgia for the years when they were members of the cast. Leading businessmen of Lafayette once sang in the chorus and now remember a spirit of Christmas that seems to be often forgotten.

This year the program will be given on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Three hundred fifty students will participate in the varied productions.

The dance group, under the direction of Millicent Hamburger, will interpret the legend of "The First Christmas Tree." Music groups will perform traditional seasonal songs and carols, including the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah."

To complete the spirit of giving appropriate to the Christmas season, no admission will be charged.

County OK's Smog Control Tax

Support of a one cent tax proposed by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District for an enforcement program was agreed upon Tuesday by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

The board also instructed Warren G. Buchanan of Pittsburg to carry the supervisors' backing to a district meeting Wednesday. They further directed Buchanan to urge the district to carry out its proposal to reimburse counties willing to undertake the district's enforcement program.

In the next fiscal year, regardless of whether enforcement of smog regulations is at the district or local level, smog control in the Bay Area will cost more than $1,000,000.

This will require doubling the present property tax in the area now limited by the state to one cent.

Benjamin Linsky, air pollution control officer, submitted an organization plan for enforcement of the district's first two regulations December 1 to the budget and finance committee of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, calling for addition of 28 persons to the present staff of 37 and boosting the total budget $340,000 above this year's $600,000.

Woman Dies After Orinda Auto Crash

Services were held yesterday for Mrs. Louise C. Carpenter, 42, of 45 El Gavilan Road, Orinda, at Gothic Chapel, Mt. View Cemetery, Oakland.

Mrs. Carpenter died Monday night in Kaiser Hospital, Walnut Creek, of injuries received when her car went out of control and crashed in Orinda.

The California Highway Patrol said the brakes on the woman's car apparently failed Monday as she came down a steep street from her home. Witnesses estimated the station wagon was traveling about 50 miles per hour as it went through the La Espiral Road intersection and smashed into a tree.

Both Mrs. Carpenter and her passenger, Lillian Gordon, 34, of Oakland were taken to Kaiser Hospital for examination. Mrs. Gordon suffered facial cuts.

Mrs. Carpenter is survived by her husband, Floyd, a Kaiser Company executive, and four children, John, 21, of the United States Navy; Robert, 16; Carol, 14, and Julie, 7.

She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Louise Cown, and a brother, George T. Cown, both of Evanston, Illinois.

Hull and Son's Walnut Creek mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Snow's Falling; Skiers Heading for the Hills!

By ANN LINCOLN and TOM FERGUSON

Is this the week that all Miramonte girls are waiting anxiously for that very special call that could be an invitation to the Junior Prom? You bet it is!

Committees, sub-committees, and sub-sub-committees have been working diligently to make it a big success.

It is bound to be, mainly because the Junior class has the fattest piggy bank of all the classes.

THE JUNIORS ARE really going to town this month. A ski trip, sponsored by the Junior Teen Club, has been planned for the first Monday and Tuesday of Christmas vacation to Squaw Valley. The price is quite reasonable and includes food, lodging and bus. All classes are welcome, so if you're interested come to the announced meeting to be held shortly.

Over the Thanksgiving holidays the majority of Matador party-goers turned to skiing for a change of pace. Sandy Corbett, Pete Read, Andy de Grassi, Bob Boyle and Jim Hackett headed for ski country with their car piled high with ski equipment, clothes and plenty of food. The generator burned out going over the pass; a car bomb sneakily inserted by Pete and Jim didn't quite work, but it managed to take care of two of the cylinders; the food supply ran out Saturday night, so the boys had chocolate sundaes. It seems that they had quite an exciting time going home, too . . . in a blizzard.

Other Matadors seen up there were Bill Hilger, Josh Jensen, Dennis McCann, Bob Lyman, Gary McCosker, Ron and Hap Parks and Allison Hanford.

EVERYONE BE SURE to go to the Oakland Raider's game this Sunday. They have some new pom pon girls . . . Karen Weatherbee, Wendy Wilcox, Cinda Snell, Pat Canfield, Janice Fowler, Tina Cole, Kathy Cole, Marc Joacobs and Pam Dermit.

Last Tuesday the seniors at Miramonte had quite a special treat. The three senior problems classes were visited by a man from the Bell Telephone Company. He showed the classes a very recent movie of the air defense set up of our country. The title of the movie was "Seconds for Survival."

At the conclusion of the movie our visitor made a direct long distance call to Colorado Springs, Colorado, to talk with a high official of our air defense program. Colorado Springs is the center of our air defense network. The class members were able to ask the general any questions which they had concerning the movie. The day proved to be an exciting and educational one for the seniors.

The senior class has elected to have the band of Ben Meltzer play at ther Senior Ball, which is to be held next June. Meltzer played at the Senior Ball last year, also.

SNOW IS FALLING in the mountains and Miramonte's many ski enthusiasts are getting ready to head for the high country. The seniors are planning their ski trip already. The proposed date of the trip is January 28, the Saturday after the semester finals are over. The class decided to go to Sugar Bowl this year. The Orinda Parents' Club is sponsoring the one-day trip.

Last Wednesday evening several kids from Miramonte saw a wonderful fashion show and ski movie in the Acalanes gym. Some of the snow bunnies watching the movie were Jim Hackett and Sue Cox, Robert Boyle and Mary Baker, Johnny Drath and Susie Mattress, Andy de Grassi and Sherry Croci, and Pete Read was having a time with Jane White.

The ski movie was narrated by Dick Barrymore and was titled "Ski West Young Man." Miss Linda Mather was seen wandering around the auditorium also.

A guy named Duane Byron Chase is walking around with a kind of silly-looking smile on his face these days. I think that I've got the inside story on this funny smile of his. Its a girl named Lynn who goes to Acalanes. She's somewhat of a conservative but Duane will soon take care of that situation.

Jackie Villata had an open house Saturday night for many Miramonteans. Some of those enjoying themselves were Roger McCosker, Kitty Mika, Grigg DeWitt, John Rinne, Byrnace Thrailkill, Corbett Kroll, Linda Bargones, Janice Hempstead, Jack Putnam and a "thousand and one" Knights. Grigg thought he was pretty funny taking just one bite out of each of the 16 apples in the fruit bowl.

A couple of weeks ago Rich Lyman, George Kimball, Al Gregerson, Jim Ronanbar and Dave Ramet took their cycles to the Scrambles in Richmond.

Rick Bagley had a tickler for the funny bone he heard at work, which went something like this: "Get your handy-dandy homemade H bomb. Be the only kid on your block to be the only kid on your block."

Nancy Casey had an ice skating and dinner party Saturday night for some frosh girls. Those having a wonderful time were Joan Derrix, Ellen Goldsmith, Ann Cunningham, Betty Tranberg and Eleanor Larsen. It seems Ann had a hard time trying to eat the cransberries served at dinner.

The ice skating bug seems to be hitting because some seniors and their dates visited the Berkeley Rink and then went to John Drath's for a party afterwards. Some who enjoyed themselves were John and Sharen Nielson, Pete Read and Marc Jacobs, Mary Baker and Robert Boyle and Sue Cox and Jim Hackett.

Look Homeward, Angel!

PRESENTS homemade are so much more pleasurable when finished . . . as well as when proudly given . . . The youngsters making bright baubles w/my broken beads & jewelry. Also felt bookmarks & decorated pin boxes. A tissue paper topiary rose tree sits here half-completed & looks like something out of Lewis Carroll's ALICE in Wonderland.

The junior homemaker of the family has helped to make several batches of candied orange, lime & grapefruit peel but became impatient (so did I!) w/the eternal process. Almost an all-day affair.

THIS YEAR, for a change, we are running even-stephen on schedule . . . I guess the smart ones are those whose presents are all picked out, wrapped & ready for the first week of December. Altho' there is always something last minute in the stores to be got & that's when the wonderful feeling swells to a bursting point. Ditto the budget!

HOME IS WHERE the harth is . . . & how good to come in out of the snapping cold to a warm house where firelight flickers & the lamps are lit . . . How pleasing to drive past a house garlanded w/colored lights . . . Over on Glorietta Blvd., the home of the Ted Harrers looks (lit up at night all along the roof outline as well as the windows not to mention, could it be, colored water coming from the fountains?) like a veritable Santa Claus land.

AS SOON as we gather our greens, a kind of madness overtakes us. In no time at all w/the help of pliers, wire & a few tricks we learned from artistic Charlotte Chapple, we've turned our house into a Forest Primeval. Every room gets the royal treatment & once the Deodar boughs are draped over the scalloped valance in the bedroom, I wish they could stay there all year 'round. (Once the boughs dry, however, the needles drop at the slightest touch & you can bet nobody around HERE snores w/his mouth open!)

SO, LOOK Homeward, Angel . . . In spite of the party calandar & the myriad things to be done, take a good look at your own lovely house, the people in it, the things around you & try not to get caught up in the maelstrom of a mad-rush Merry Christmas!

Spotting some mistletoe in one of the big oak trees, I couldn't help thinking it's a shame that Mistletoe, responsible for so many nice things around the holidays, is called a "parasite!"

All Through the Town

TONIGHT a cocktail dance at Mike Lynn's for members & their husbands winds up a whirlwind week for the Orinda Woman's Club . . . Monday night they held their annual Christmas meet, a jewelry exchange taking the place of gifts, w/each member plucking a bauble from a gem of a tree. Members have been busy making doll clothes to dress dollies for orphan children & Wishy Sage for one, enjoyed every minute of it.

THE CLUB'S president, that superbly-efficient & gorgeous dear Jan Soubielle will hostess a Cookie Exchange party at her Bel Air Dr. home next week for those in the Gourmet Group.

THE COOKIE SWAP idea is one Marian Brown will use to usher in the holidays. Friends are invited to each bring 8 dozen cookies & Happy Little Homemakers attending will take as many home, but a bigger variety than each brought.

A WHITE ELEPHANT exchange & some very special entertainment is promised women of the Santa Maria parish who attend next Tues. night's Christmas gather-all in the Parish Hall. Marcella Byrnes has enlisted a group of highly-talented performers who have won professional acclaim for their native songs & dances of Bulgaria & Yugoslavia. All women in the parish are invited. 8 PM!

While we're over there in Bulgaria & Yugoslavia, we might mention that you won't want to miss the December exhibit at the Orinda Library. Sponsored by the Friends of the Orinda Library, a delightful collection of dolls & what better season & reason than to see them now. First off, right inside the door, favorite old Pinocchio in all shapes & sizes, altho' his prominent proboscis remains the same . . . the collection of Mrs. Oran Barlow.

UNDER GLASS, center library, dolls of all countries come to life, from Geisha to Greek, from Turkey to Thailand. The International dolls are the treasures of Margaret Tharp's aunt, Mrs. Barrett Coates of Oakland.

IF YOU STILL go soft over old dolls like we do, you'll particularly enjoy the Antique dolls which include the most delicate & life-like bisque & wax dolls. These are the Pride & Toy of Mrs. D. L. Larieu of Oakland, a member of the Bay Area Doll Club. We esp. liked the Gibson Girl & Floradora Girl dolls.

THE ART EXHIBIT sponsored by the Orinda Art Center on the walls of the Children's reading section shows a remarkable array of talent from Mr. Jesse's Seventh & Eighth graders . . . By Joanne Davidson, a bucolic oil of two country mailboxes . . . Judy Meyer's Cable Car climbing the hills you can practically hear clanging while people are clinging . . . An abstract, in modern strokes of genius, by Sue Davis . . . Rich colors in Still Life paintings by Karl Williams, Bob Gibbs . . . Purple Mountain majesty in rich hues by Paul Laborile . . .

Didi Pierre & Judy Seydoux both w/unusual wax paintings on display . . . Jeanne Colewell's corrugated paper painting & an intricate college design by Gail Heffernan. Any one of them, good enough for framing & a place of honor in the family living room!

CALLED Margaret Moore to make a date for our annual Christmas lunch together . . . Our good friends, turned Real Estate lady, is now hanging her coat in the office of Byron Nelson Real Estate on Bryant Way . . . The Harold Ohleyers have been spending time, as well as money, at a Palm Springs spa . . . & headed for warmer sun in the southland tomorrow are Eva & Norm Parker. Eva entertains at a cozy Candlelight Tea today for her old friends. Her Christmas specialty—beautiful bejeweled candles!

SURPRISE PACKAGES . . .The Hugh Riegers (of that prolific clan) will welcome #4 in the late Spring . . . The Karl Rigors are calling their fourth Steve & the Ruth & Bill Clyatt's 3-mos. old son is named Tommy.

THE GEORGE Loshbaughs will have another Income Tax Deduction (#2) next year early & ditto for the Clyde Juchau's who expect their 4th in March.

Beauty Is as Beauty Does—

The California Ballet Company staged a stand-out performance last Sunday w/a double attraction of "Beauty & The Beast" & "La Boutique Fantasque."

The front rows of Miramonte's auditorium were filled early w/the Younger Set members spruced up in their Sunday Best . . . What's more, there were white gloves & dress coats & pressed grey flannels & the Lilliputs & young ladies never looked more charming. We hope the ballet becomes an Annual.

THE STAGE SETS (deftly changed) as well as the colorful costumes kept the audience wide-eyed & enthralled & there were few restless stirrings for such a mainly young audience.

'BEAUTY" is as Beauty does & blonde curvaceous Geraldine Uhlig performed exactly as story-readers would imagine Beauty to be. The lovely dancer w/skin like something right out of London's Yardley, proved herself an actress as well as a pro dancer. The exciting tale of the young girl who finally professes love for the spellbound Prince (despite his Beastly Looks) culminates in a finale all red, white & romantic, like something out of Saint Valentine's. The moral of the story is, of course, kiddies, that "Looks Aren't Everything!"

ON HAND early for ticket sales, Betty Chilton & Loretta Jacobs sharing chrmn. duties . . . Florence Wagner counting the "take" . . . At the door, Fran Yedidia . . . Candy Courtright, cumberbunded in shocking pink on a pretty print, busily dispensing programs . . . Nancy Ault headed for seats.

INTERMISSION TALK . . . The Bill Marshalls, w/a Girl Scout group in tow, taking a breather outside for a chat w/Paul Mouser who attended w/his young sons . . . A handsome Leopard jacket on blonde Marcia Blumer chatting w/Elva Rust, Charlotte Chapple, Dorothy Dunn. Pauol Pause, the internationally famous dancer & choreographer & the group's Director, played the Father in "Beauty" but on the program his name appeared as Robert William Phillip.

THE FANTASTIC TOY SHOP, concluding the afternoon program, proved even more delightful to the younger children than did Beauty, perhaps because of its' faster pace & less-involved story.

County Files Complaint In Undersized Lot Sale

Criminal complaints for alleged violation of a county ordinance prohibiting the sale of undersized lots were filed last week with the District Attorney's office.

The action, first of its kind, was disclosed at a county planning commission meeting at which the lot buyer, Richard H. Brunskill attempted to get his less than one-half acre lot recognized as legal, although it is in an area zoned for half acre lots.

CHIEF Assistant District Attorney John Clausen said the misdemeanor criminal complaints were filed against Overland Homes, Inc. of Walnut Creek and Sam Singleton, the salesman who sold Brunskill the land at 3181 Miranda Avenue, Alamo.

Clausen said the attorney for Overland Homes agreed to appear in court and enter a plea. No date has been set as yet for the hearing in Danville Justice Court.

Should the defendent plead not guilty, a date will be set for trial, Clausen said. If the defendent pleads guilty, the Judge will determine sentence, probably a fine, he added.

SAM SINGLETON, also named in the complaint is no longer in the country. He is believed to be in England. Clausen said the complaint against Singleton would remain standing.

Brunskill's lot discrepancy came to light when he applied for a building permit to add a room to the existing house. The building inspector discovered the parcel was undersized.

Planning commissioners recommended that the board of supervisors grant Brunskill's application. The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was to consider the matter yesterday afternoon as The Sun went to press.

Brunskill's lot at the intersection of Miranda Avenue and Green Valley Road originally was a part of a 38,240 square foot parcel which the sellers divided into two lots.

He bought the land with buildings already on it, a year ago November.

An amendment recently adopted by the supervisors would enable Brunskill to recover his losses from the sellers.

Scout Spray, Wreath Sales Begin Saturday

Boy Scout Troop 204 began their annual spray and wreath sales on Saturday. This traditional fund raising event began week before last when the boys and their dads gathered boughs in the mountains.

These will be used by the parents to make sprays. The wreaths are made especially for the troop by a commercial firm.

The funds realized from this joint scout-parent endeavor will help defray the cost of the troop's two main, annual events — the winter ski trip and the summer Sierra hike.

The Mother's Club, under the direction of Mrs. R. E. Vincent, are making handsome red satin bows. For the next two weeks nightly crews of parents will use these bows and fresh pinecones to adorn the sprays and wreaths.

Daily groups of scouts will be working together to call on as many Lafayette residents as possible to make this years wreath sale a big success.

Reader Survey Indicates Need For Brief Notes

The Sun recently conducted a readership survey—perhaps you participated in it yourself—and the results vitally affect your presentation of church news.

The survey indicated that most people will not read overly lengthy items, and that in the case of church news in particular, they will not continue to read an article which goes "on and on."

Therefore, in order to tailor The Sun to our readers' wishes, we will try to present our church news in more readable form.

We are therefore asking all people who send us church notices to try to limit them to approximately three inches—this is about 12 lines of double-spaced typing on a standard sized sheet of paper.

The notice should include the sermon topic for the week, the times of services and a brief mention of any special events.

If your church is having a visiting speaker, or a special seasonal event, The Sun will welcome a separate story carrying the details of the event. Such information should not appear in the regular church notice which is sent in each week.

The Sun staff hopes that this will result in better readership of the church notices appearing in the paper each week, and that the churches will benefit from this additional readership.

A Merry Whistle Makes Us All Feel a Little Happier

By YVONNE MAUZY
DR 6-4083

I heard the nicest thing this morning—a small boy came whistling down the street. This seems to be obsolete in these days of space mindedness and hurry flurry. The whistling of a boy or man, and the song of a woman working in the home are something from the past that I think should be brought back with the clothes style.

These are things that cause everyone within earshot to feel a little happier.

A couple who should be whistling and singing are John and Shirley Christie, who have just become the proud parents of a baby girl named Carrie Ann, born two weeks ago in Providence Hospital, Oakland. She weighed in at 7 pounds, 8 ounces .Congratulations to you both.

Rheem School had new report cards the last grading period. They are a big improvement over last year's model and I have heard many favorable comments.

Mr. Toll informs me Mrs. Mott of the University of California, and Mrs. Johnson of Orinda Schools, gave a very interesting Spanish lesson to the fourth grade. The lesson was entirely in Spanish, using pantomime and flannel board. The children understood for they gave the same reaction they would have had the lesson been in English. It was the story of "The Three Bears."

The fifth and sixth grades had their lesson together and sang songs and played games entirely in Spanish. The "Ten Little Indians" was one of the songs. Mrs. Freitas taught the students of the fifth and sixth grades a song as a surprise to sing to Mrs. Mott and Mrs. Johnson.

The school band is now organized with 16 members. They have had their second practice.

Did you know our school has grown from 35 students to the 372 students of today in a mere 10 years. This is real progress and I think the next 10 years will show even more drastic changes in growth.

Dottie Gorow is giving a baby shower for Jo Rogers tonight. Jo was originally from Moraga and has recently moved to Lafayette. The shower will be held in the Gorow home with residents of Moraga and Orinda present.

Rheem children are around taking orders for Christmas wreaths. Be sure to patronize the children in your area, as proceeds from this sale will go toward bettering our school. A sample of the wreath is on display at the Safeway store in Rheem Center.

Just as a reminder: Anyone wishing to have their name on the mailing list for the board meeting agenda notices may contact Marie Wright.

Did you know Mrs. Toll, our principal's wife, is in Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek? She is expected to be at the hospital for two weeks. I hope many of you will send cards and by the time you read this, she will be receiving visitors.

The lights of Christmas are gradually outlining homes, spreading like a flood of color over the valley as the Yule season slips daily closer.

Parties are becoming more and more frequent as the neighbors celebrate the Christmas season and friends and relatives come to visit.

The rain and wind have left the trees bare and turned the hills into a beautiful green. Frosts have taken the remainder of the flowers and left us with only the green and gold of nature's beautiful color scheme.

Contractors Lose EBMUD Dispute

The State District Court of Appeal in San Francisco supported the East Bay Municipal Utility District's refusal to supply water service to seven lots being developed by Orinda contractors, Boies and Soule.

After unsuccessfully seeking a writ of mandamus on the county Superior Court to force the company to supply the water to seven of 20 lots in the Springbrook tract in Lafayette, Boies and Soule appealed.

Since their other 13 lots are receiving water, the utility district should be compelled to provide service to the remaining seven, the contractors argued.

EBMUD attorneys said the district had offered to supply water if the contractors would pay for laying a pipeline to the lots from a water tower the district would build.

Water pressure in the present main is inadequate to supply the lots without the pipeline, they said.

The court held that EBMUD had not been discriminatory nor unreasonable in the refusal. The court's decision voids a suit by Boies and Soule against the district for $50,000 in compensatory damages and $25,000 punitive damages resulting from the water dispute.

Nancy Grah Acts As College Guide

Playing host to 1200 visitors at the University of California, Santa Barbara, was Nancy Grah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph F. Grah of 78 Sleepy Hollow Lane.

She was one of 150 guides who showed prospective college students and their families around the modern seaside campus recently.

New Presbyterian Church Formed for Moraga Area

The newly formed Moraga Presbyterian Church fellowship will hold its first service of worship Sunday at 11 a.m. in the auditorium of the old Moraga School.

Reverend Ronald T. White, D.D., has been named the founding pastor and with his wife he is now in residence at 5 Roberts Court, Moraga. He has been serving as interim minister in Walnut Creek.

AT THE services Sunday, Dayton Johnson will be at the organ and the chancel choir of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church will assist.

There will be group activities for pre-school and primary age children during the worship hour, but the church school will not begin until January 8. The Faith and Life curriculum of The United Presbyterian Church will be used when church school begins.

The Presbytery of San Francisco is negotiating with the Utah Land Company for a site for the new church, with a lot two blocks from Miramonte High School now under consideration.

One hundred fifty-nine families of the area have expressed interest in the new church in a survey.

DR. WHITE, in addition to being a pastor, has served as western area field director for the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education. He has been a university pastor and has worked in summer conference programs.

Dr. White says, "It is our goal to take our place in this area and to make a real contribution in the spiritual, educational and cultural development of our community."

Make Sure Your Christmas Shopping Gets Home

The Meanest Thief in Town might be the one that takes a child's Christmas present.

And it could happen to you.

We are not talking about the unlikely occurrence of a thief entering your home and making off with the presents under the tree, although this could happen.

We are considering a much more likely possibility — the chance that you will have your Christmas presents taken practically from under your nose.

WE LEAD a pretty carefree life out here in the "country" — or at least what we used to consider the country.

Neighbor meets neighbor at the local store and they chat about local affairs.

Meanwhile, shopping parcels repose peacefully in the back of the family auto out in the parking lot.

But we must face the sad fact that we are growing rapidly in Central Contra Costa County . . . and this brings its share of troubles, along with the good things.

And one of these troubles is an increase in crime — bound to happen simply because we have a greater population and therefore there are greater and more profitable opportunities.

SO, IF YOU don't want your Christmas shopping ruined, and possibly your children disappointed, we recommend that you lock your car when you go shopping.

Police authorities are already receiving an increasing number of complaints from local residents reporting items stolen from their cars.

There is little enough the police can do about this kind of crime. But there is a great deal that you can do.

Lock your car!

YOUR CAR and you may be the victim of the lightfingered type such as shown above, as he prepares to make off with holiday packages. His job is easy, of course, because your car is unlocked. Scene is almost any place where cars congregate these days. (The car was "loaned" temporarily by C. E. Holman of Alamo.) Sun Photo by Bob Rush.

Another Plan for Saving Our Money, By Golly!

We're really beginning to believe what we read in the papers — The Sun and other papers, too.

At least we're beginning to believe what they say about cutting some of the costs in county government.

We were happy to report last week that the county will henceforth send jury summonses out by registered mail.

This may not sound like a big event, but look what happens.

ACCORDING TO Ralph Lindsay, staff analyst for County Administrator J. P. McBrien, 8500 jury summonses were served in person by sheriff's deputies last year.

The cost was estimated at $13,000, including nearly $4000 for second and third trips when recipients were not at home. This means that about 11,000 separate attempts were necessary.

The cost of mailing out the summonses and questionnaires to determine if prospective jurors are qualified, is estimated at about $2800 in postage and $700 in telephone calls to some 3500 persons actually called to serve on juries.

Now anybody with basic mathematical ability can see that this will save the county plenty of money. And that means that you have a better chance of holding the line with your personal tax bill next year.

A SAVING of $9500 per year may not be a great deal when you consider the total county budget, but we are of the opinion that every little bit helps.

We are also of the opinion that this is the kind of thinking which we need in county government, and McBrien and his staff are to be congratulated for working out the details of the program.

And the county officials are equally to be congratulated for adopting the measure.

And DON'T Use Candles!

Christmas is traditionally a time of joy and thanksgiving, certainly not the time to talk about death, injury and tragedy.

But every year hundreds of people are burned, thousands of dollars worth of damage occur, and people die because somebody was careless with fire, especially around a Christmas tree.

Here are some suggestions for "fire control" in your home, as offered by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

When you select your Christmas tree this year, choose a freshly-cut tree, with firmly-attached needles.

KEEP THE TREE outdoors until just before Christmas. It will stay fresher in the cold air, and once you have it up, it will stay green longer. And keep it standing in a pail of water.

When putting up the tree, set it in the coolest part of the room, away from radiators, heaters and the fireplace. This will not only reduce the possibility of fire, but will keep the tree from drying out.

It is a good plan to use a tree holder which has a little bucket of water in which the trunk can rest during the holidays. A tree usually "drinks" more water than you realize, so keep water container filled at all times.

Fireproof Christmas tree decorations are the best. Use decorations made of either glass, metal, or a fire-resistant material.

Set up electric trains away from the tree. A spark from the train could set the tree on fire.

ALWAYS USE electric lights on the tree — never candles. Lighting sets should be checked before being placed on the tree, and those with frayed wiring should be discarded. When buying new sets, look for the tag or label showing listing by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. A switch some distance from the tree should be provided for turning the tree lights on and off.

On Christmas morning, fold and put away any gift wrapping you intend to keep. Other gift wrappings should be gathered up and thrown away promptly after presents are opened.

Christmas tree lights should be turned off when the family is away from home.

Inspect the Christmas tree from time to time to see how dry it is. If needles near the lights have started to turn brown, change the position of the lights.

When the needles start falling, take the tree down and discard it outdoors.

Even if the tree remains fresh, make plans now to dismantle it the day after New Years', and restore the room to its normal setting.

Don't Call Me—I'll Call You

By CONNIE PIKE

Pity the poor housewife. She does her best to keep up with everything—cooking, cleaning, running errands, correlating the activities of a family of four, five or more.

She has to plan her time well to have any left over for herself. Many conscientious housewives consider it a real luxury to chat 10 minutes on the telephone with a friend.

In the middle of a hectic morning while she is bathing the baby or mopping the playroom floor, the telephone rings. She takes the baby from the tub, wrapped in a towel, or props the mop in a corner while she goes to answer.

SHE BARELY has time to say "Hello" when a strange voice greets her familiarly, and without a pause goes into a spiel.

"Your name has been selected as the winner of a tremendous prize—". Your name has been selected, all right. Right out of the telephone directory.

Among the things you might have won are: A free dancing lesson, a 15-pound turkey, a photograph for only $1, or the privilege of listening to a salesman tell you about his insurance plan or encyclopedia.

All of the presents come with plenty of strings attached. For the turkey, you have to buy 100 pounds of beef for your freezer, and sometimes you have to buy the freezer, too. To get the dancing lesson you have to stand firm while the studio tries to sell you a course in dancing.

THE ONE TIME we accepted the $1 photograph deal, four trips were required before we got the picture—along with a very cold shoulder.

The telephone is indeed a modern convenience — one we can hardly do without.

We can call the doctor and call the office. We can make appointments with the beauty shop and the dentist. We can call our relatives and friends and the schools and our husbands, and they can call us.

We can call the garage when the car won't start.

The problem is, any one, and I mean ANY ONE, can call us.

Let's say you're sick with a temperature of 104. The kids have gone to school and your husband has gone to work. The doctor orders you to bed, and gratefully you go.

The telephone rings. Should you stagger out of bed and answer it? It could be important. You decide you'd better.

"Hello?" you quaver.

"YOU," THE caller begins, "are the lucky winner of $4 worth of "African", the new magazine designed for the busy African housewife. All you have to do is send us your check for $20 and we'll send you $24 worth of this smart new magazine right away. Will you accept this offer, madam?"

Your temperature climbs to 106 and you slip to the floor in a faint, the telephone falling from your weak hand.

Faintly the voice reaches you. "Madam, do you wish to accept our offer? Hello? Hello?"

Dear Santa . . . Her Kingdom For a Horse, Of Course!!

By MARIE MONAHAN

HOW STUDIOUS they are! The children bent over their books doing homework.

(Ah, how they fooled me!)

They are busy playing games. With Christmas lists.

They look so conscientious because they are very intent on what they are doing.

THEY are not worrying about what to give Aunty Ann, Uncle John . . . or me.

They are worrying about what THEY would like to get under the tree.

"Children," I say, "you know it is Better To Give Than To Receive."

But they just stare off into the blue. While visions of tissue-wrapped boxes dance 'round in their heads.

I glance over their shoulders & let out a gasp. The lists are so long, it's frightening.

"It's just for fun, Mom." They will now buckle down to brass tacks. Down to the barest essentials.

BY THE PROCESS of elimination, my daughter pared her list down to the absolute BARE necessities. Believe me.

There are only three items on the list.

But the first one throws me. She assures me she doesn't require a saddle because she will ride this BARE Necessity bareback.

ALL THE LIST has on it is 1. A Horse. 2. A Dollar & 3 Two Goldfish.

That doesn't leave me much choice. By my own process of elimination, I'm down to the goldfish.

After all, who has a dollar to give away at Christmas time?

THIS horse has haunted me for three years. I cannot dismiss it so lightly.

Maybe I can get by by just giving her a lead rope—or something FOR the horse. Which she will have to wait for until another year.

BUYING A HORSE makes dolly shopping a breeze. I am kind of sorry that our girls has graduated. No dolls on the list this year.

It is a big blow to me.

NO TOYS FOR THE BOYS, either. There are more interested in clothes & coin collections.

This will be the first time in AGES that I have no reason for raiding the Toy Dept.

It is a kind of sad feeling. A period of transition.

ALL OF A SUDDEN the children have bigger things on their minds. Like Horses!

The only horses they sell in Toyland are stuffed ones. That is not the kind our young lady has in mind.

I am, of course, relieved we won't be fussing with those toys you have to put together yourself.

BUT A HORSE has to be put together, too.

IF YOU GIVE a horse, do you wrap it in hay & tie it with a harness?

I think I would put a few sleigh bells on its mane & a collar of red ribbon around its neck.

But you can't open a horse under the tree. Or by the fireplace!

You can't even open a horse in the house. THAT'S the real problem. You could just open the Dutch Door & have the horse standing there. Smiling.

It's not so much the hay & the horse. It's WHERE do you put it after you get it?!

The young lady will have to wait until she can pay its bed & board by baby-sitting.

I will sign her up now for sitting duties in the Spring.

We told her she will have a new baby sister or brother by then.

She'd still rather have the horse, of course!

BUT that's pretty good timing, don't you think?

JUST 385 days till NEXT Christmas . . . when I can shop for a doll or a ball & raid the Toy Dept. again.

Meanwhile . . . about those goldfish!

Letters to The Editor

PRAISE D.A.

Dear Editor:

We in Contra Costa County should be proud of our District Attorney for the moral, ethical, and fair stand he has taken in our behalf in regard to the Welfare Program.

His courage in the face of great opposition is to be commended and deserves our support.

Thank goodness! There are John Nejedlys in office that do not back down from the job they have sworn to do.

SHERWOOD S. KNIGHT

REPRESENTATION

Dear Editor:

We were away when your paper asked for suggestions for better Community Service. I cannot resist this belated idea that has been with me for some time. Especially, now that the election is over.

Why doesn't some newspaper make it a point to keep people informed the year round and in between elections, WHO their representatives are in the state and nationally. And how they are voting on pertinent issues or if they are absent (ducking?) an important issue.

I venture to say that if you were to ask 10 people at random who the present incumbents are, they could not tell you. And the election is just over. It seems to me that if a real effort was made by some newspaper a continual listing of names of our representatives and their actions, it would begin to register with people or at least would be available for reference, if the spirit should move them to look it up.

No doubt there are some who would say that most folks would ignore it, but like the weather predictions—they might not be read all the time but folks know where to find it if they do wish to be informed.

Name withheld by request.

Perhaps This Will Help You Select Good Movies

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Dear Editor:

In the best interest of our high school students, Miramonte Parents Club urges The Sun to publish a weekly article on film ratings. With no regard to current showings, such an article could be a reprint of the Film Estimate Board list, which we would be glad to submit regularly.

Complete coverage could be given by printing eight or ten ratings each week, adding two and omitting two in successive weeks.

The important aspect is to furnish a regular and easily available guide for both parents and young people to more suitable film. A selective attitude should ultimately improve the kind of film offered in this area.

Very sincerely yours,
MIRAMONTE PARENTS CLUB
By Dorothy Dunn (Mrs. C.L.)

This letter arrived in my office last week. Being parents of teenage and younger children, Sun staff members went into a brief huddle.

And so what happened?

Our discussion went something like this: 'Tis a very good idea but we are limited on space. We sometimes have trouble getting in all our local news, much less extra features. But as parents we know the problem of selecting proper movies for our children. (And ourselves.) Where can parents and kids find such ratings available? How do you know if the picture at the local movie is okay?

Well, we kicked this around and finally decided to test the idea. The Sun will run once each month the ratings of the Film Estimate Board of National Organizations. These ratings will be printed the first or second week, probably on this page.

Later we will ask if you use this new feature. If a poll of readers answer "Yes," we will continue the ratings.

What is the board?

The Film Estimate Board is a nationally recognized organization, composed of representatives of 11 nationwide associations. I'll name just a few—American Association of University Women, General Federation of Women's Clubs, Protestant Motion Picture Council, PTA, American Library Association.

Occasionally all 11 groups do not agree on "audience classification," but we will print the majority opinion. The suggested "audience classifications" are as follows:

A—Adults
MY—Mature Young People
Y—Young People
F—Family
C—Children (unaccompanied by adults)

What we will do

It would be fun to print the entire review of each picture because they are well written and rather saucy. However, they are lengthy, so we will present a concise statement plus the audience classification. Here goes the first group:

"TEN WHO DARED"—The first exploration of the Colorado River in 1869 is recorded. The hardships of the trip, the bickering among the ill-chosen men take up a good deal of the picture, which tends to be as much an exploration of temperments as of the Colorado. F

"THE ALAMO"—The story of the siege of the Alamo—praised for its huge cast, studded with vivid personalities, its attention to details, the stirring sweep and power of its spectacle. Outstanding film F

"A BREATH OF SCANDAL"—The Strauss waltzes, glitter and gaiety of period Viennese romantic comedies fill this elaborate adaptation of Molnar's "Olympia, with touches of frothy intrigue and scandal in the Emperor's Court. A-MY

Here are 2 dandies for kids:

"BUTTERFIELD 8" — Elizabeth Taylor once again plays a sex-ridden, hard-drinking girl with tormenting problems. O'Hara's novel is faithfully transferred to the screen in a luxuriously mounted, fast moving, smoothly-directed film. A

"DESIRE IN THE DUST"—Set in a small town in the deep south, this lurid melodrama journeys through a maze of torrid love-making, hatred, infidelity, insanity, physical and mental cruelty. A

"THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN"—Paralleling a Japanese film about seven warriors who come to the rescue of a bandit-besieged hamlet, an unusual western deals with a group of gunfighters bringing similar aid to a Mexican village. A-MY-Y

English cops and robbers

"HELL IS A CITY"—Although the situations in this English melodrama are familiar, they are presented with a life and excitement that lifts the film out of the ordinary cops and robbers class. An escaped convict uses his former associates to retrieve the hidden loot from the jewel robbery for which he was jailed. A-MY

"THE SWISS FAMILY OF ROBINSON"—Made to order for family audiences, this Disney filming of the childhood classic puts in a change here and there to liven matters up a bit. F

"GIRL OF THE NIGHT" — Based on a psychiatric study, "The Call Girl," this film's story of well-paid prostitution is probably derived from a number of case histories. A

"MIDNIGHT LACE"—Poor Doris Day comes near to losing her mind from terror in this top-notch mystery thriller. A-MY

This sounds fun

"THE THREE WORLDS OF GULLIVER"—A gently humorous and moralistic version of Jonathan Swift's savage 18th Century satire on mankind does not present Gulliver's travels complete, but comes to the similar conclusion that life has much the same pattern everywhere. F

"SEPTEMBER STORM"—With the aid of Polaroid glasses, the audience is treated to a satisfying look at the island of Majorca and the pictorial aspects of an underseas treasure hunt. A-MY-Y

Well, that is it. Would appreciate any suggestions or comment. What do you think?

JUMPING JACK Santa, Mrs. Ronald Light, center, president of the Contra Costa County Dental Auxiliary, epitomizes the enthusiasm and fun anticipated at the auxiliary planned dinner dance tomorrow night at Marsh Creek Lodge, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Lee R. # Youthful Outlook Keeps This Family Young

Beachcombing To PTA -- These Parents Pitch In

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Some commuters return home each evening to dinner and the easy chair. Robert Underhill of 3355 Springhill Road, Lafayette, returns from his work in San Francisco with the Dow Chemical Company to plunge happily into the affairs of his wife and youngsters.

Both Robert and Leslie Nnderhill, parents of three teenagers, have always participated in youth activities, particularly church, school and Scouts.

THEY MET WHEN both were students at the University of California, Berkeley and were married in 1940. "We came to live in Lafayette in 1941," Mrs. Underhill recalled, "and have loved living here ever since."

"I think my husband's initiation into youth work probably started with the Girl Scouts," she said. "He was site chairman for the Girl Scout camps at Twin Canyon.

"After years of Girl Scouting, he graduated to Boy Scout affairs and is now a troop committeeman for Troop 210. We've worked together in PTA and Parents Club affairs, too.

"HE HAS BEEN hospitality chairman at Acalanes and ways and means chairman at Stanley, and together we served as the first presidents of the Springhill School Parents Club," she continued.

"I think perhaps one of his greatest interests right now is in helping the Friends Church in Walnut Creek which was recently organized.

"We have the church youth group meetings in our family room every Sunday at 7 p.m. All young people are welcome, and any who would like to join us may call my husband evenings at AT 3-6617," Mrs. Underhill concluded.

WHEN MR. UNDERHILL has time, he likes to ski, fish and camp. "It sounds like an awful thing to come right out and say our greatest family pleasure is beach combing," Mrs. Underhill laughed, "but we really do enjoy wandering along the beaches at low tide and gathering driftwood, shells, and all the mysterious things that appear.

"One of our happiest family vacations was spent at Puget Sound beach combing, and we try to do it whenever we have the opportunity," she added.

Mrs. Underhill majored in physical education at Cal and taught for a year in public school and two at the Anna Head school before "retiring" to raise her family.

DURING THESE "retirement" years, Leslie Underhill worked with the Girl Scouts, Brownies and PTA. She was troop leader for the first Brownie Troop formed in Lafayette.

Not content just to join a school group, she has held offices in the PTA and Parents Clubs of several schools and served as room mother many times.

Teaching once again, now that her children are older, Mrs. Underhill is a substitute teacher in the Acalanes School District. She teaches physical education, English and social studies.

A MEMBER OF the Larks Unit of the Therapy Center, she became interested in this work when an experience close to the family made them realize the value of a Therapy Center in the area.

The Underhills have their own person exchange student plan in operation this year. Their daughter, Pat, 15, is living with her aunt and uncle on Long Island, New York, and attending New Hyde Park High School where she is a sophomore .

Taking her place temporarily at the Underhill home is Pat's cousin, Barbara Jewett, who is a student at Diablo Valley College, studying fashion design.

"The girls are having a wonderful time," Mrs. Underhill said, "but it's a little hard on the parent, particularly at Christmas time because the girls are staying put for the holidays.

"WE ARE DELIGHTED with Pat's experience, she seems to be more enthusiastic and doing better in her school work than in the past.

"Pat thinks she would like to be a primary school teacher. She likes to ski, dance and swim, and is really having the time of her life in the east. She's active his year on the school newspaper.

"Barbara is interested in art, and when she returns to the east she will probably go to fashion design school. She seems to like it here and enjoys swimming and dancing with the rest of us.

"She is also president of the Friend's Church Youth group that meets at our house on Sunday evenings," Mrs. Underhill commented.

PHYLLIS, THE Underhill's eldest child, is 17 and a senior at Acalanes where she is president of the Spanish Club. Phyllis is also president of the Junior Larks. "She loves horses," her mother said, "and once thought she would be a vet. Now she is more interested in languages and thinks she might like to be a translator."

The Underhills have two horses, a mare named Bess and a colt named Quizas. "We have scads of cats, too," Mrs. Underhill revealed. "Phyllis just loves cats, and my husband, I think, aids and abets her in this passion for cats.

"At the moment, and believe me it's subecjt to change, we have three adult cats and three kittens, she exclaimed.

WOODY, THE Underhill's son, is in the eighth grade and is interested in sports and Scouts. "Right now his overpowering interest in his go-cart," his mother said, " but he likes the drums too, and is taking lessons."

An assistant patrol leader in his Scout troop, Woody, 13, has his first class rank and is working on his star rank. He likes to swim and plays golf with his mother and dad about once a week at the Contra Costa Golf Club, where the family has held membership for 14 years.

THE UNDERHILL family would not be complete without mentioning two important members who reside in a guest house at the Underhill residence.

They are Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Underhill, Robert Underhill's parents. Mr. Underhill, senior, worked at the Orchard Nursery for 15 years where he was affectionately known as "Pop" to many area residents.

Town & Country Women's Club Has Yule Party

The Lafayette Town & Country Women's Club celebrated Christmas at the home of Mrs. M. H. Pramme, 3686 Hastings Court, on Thursday.

Mrs. John Counce, social chairman, was in charge of the festive potluck luncheon, with Mesdames L. H. Lincoln, Kenneth Dunnigan, E. G. Limbocker, R. L. Campbell and George McKay acting as co-hostesses. In charge of entertainment were Mesdames Albert Wells, Robert Maier and Neil Huson.

Climaxing the gala affair was the arrival of Santa Claus and an exchange of gifts. The afternoon was completed by the singing of Christmas carols.

Mrs. E. G. Limbocker, bridge chairman, announces that the bridge section of the Town and Country Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Arne, 3695 Boyer Circle, for their annual Christmas party. Co-hosting with Mrs. Arne will be Mesdames M. B. Houser and M. H. Pramme.

Plans are under way for a club cocktail and dinner party for members and their husbands to be held December 16.

Garden Club Yule Party Is Today

The Christmas cocktail party to be given by the Orinda Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Shurtleff today, 6 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Aubrey Sweet is hospitality chairman. She will be assisted by Mesdames and Messrs. Stanford Holmgren, Lester Gease, James Anderson, Jack Fraser and Ridgley Greathouse.

Mrs. William Foster is in charge of reservations. Mrs. Campbell Judge is chairman of decorations.

The members on her committee include Mesdames Fred Crawshaw and Victor Cranston. Assisting them will be Mesdames Julian Unruh, N. S. Dodge Jr., Josephy Conley, Stuart Campbell, W. E. ## End of Storm Brings New Fishing Wealth to Area

By LARRY JACKSON

As predicted last week, give or take a day or so, the wind's got its blustering out of its system and fishing in the area is again up to its season's high.

Not only did Richardson Bay spring back, but all points upstream did, also. True, this looks like an all-time high striper run of several seasons. Saturday after the storm, the small craft as well as party boats and charters were loaded and loading up on "lunkers."

Stumbled into a startling, bit of information while on our run-of-the-ports Saturday. Stopped at Dowrelio's and charmer Nardine Lessley showed me the score she's been keeping on the fishing "take."

From September 1 through November 21, the count on 14 craft for charter showed a striper catch of 8890. This, mind you, is only the party and charter boat counts, and overlooks the private catches. It all adds up to fine sport.

Stopped off at White's Fishing Resort to look over the score-board there, found that Joe Yarbrough of Concord was second high man for the week with a 11½-pound fish going for the lowly bull-head bait.

George Cooper of Martinez was leading the group with a 12¼-pound beauty taken on sardines. Both fish were taken from the wharf.

Most of the boaters were fishing the buoy, Black Rock or Ozol Flats while we were there, and reports show plenty of scores during the week, but nothing in the "lunker" class.

An avid Walnut Creek fisherman, Hal Smith, made up a charter out of Oakland last weekend aboard Chance Sear's Beezo. The party of seven limited out fishing off the buoy at Raccoon Straits, as Hal ended up high man with two fish going 16 and 19½ pounds.

Another localite, Bill Ogden, has promised to show us where he has been getting his "cats"—a small channel near McAvoy's Yacht Harbor out of Shore Acres.

If your local sporting goods store does not have the State Fish and Game Department literature and maps, drop into Mel's Bar, where, with the help of department man Webb Talbot and Johnny Isabella, solid fishing information is given.

Our tour upstream as far as the Antioch Bridge showed the rivers crowded with boats and all stops reported good fishing, with tales of the 20-30 pound lunkers filling the sacks.

Ski Techniques Are as Fickle as Women's Modes

By HEC HANCOCK

Collect an ardent group of sport buffs, and it is almost invariably just a matter of time before a nostalgic tear is being shed for the greats of yesteryear, and the conversation centers on the "good ole days."

In most sports, time has enhanced the stature of the former hero, placing him on a pedestal high above most of today's participants.

For a rather unique reason, this situation isn't present among the growing circle of ski afficionados. While there have been many great skiers, and a multitude of prodigious feats performed, to afford the skier of past generations too much acclaim would serve to detract from the effectiveness of the prevailing ski technique that happens to be in vogue.

The most disastrous thing that could possibly happen to the "hot shot skier" would be to get caught on the slopes skiing last year's technique. Female fashions have nothing on ski styles!

Ski techniques change almost year to year, and are to command almost slavish obedience among skiers and would-be skiers throughout the world.

Most of the change stems from the competitive skier. In his consuming desire to get from here to there in the quickest possible time, he has streamlined his movements, eliminating the unecessary and ineffective.

There can be no question that the caldron of competitive skiing has contributed greatly to the progress of skiing.

Since the war, we have gone from the Arlberg style to parallel skiing as advocated by Loosli to the French style as represented by Emile Allais to Reverse Shoulder, Wedlin and the present refinement, Short Swing.

If these names have little significance to the uninitiated, there is no cause for worry. There is little to be gained by the learning skier of a knowledge of these various schools of thought.

The basic problem of the embryo skier is to learn the fundamentals, and this can usually be best accomplished through the instruction of a competent ski school.

While the natural athlete type can sometimes make out on his own on a trial and error method, remember, he is the great exception.

Once this has been accomplished, the now intermediate skier can begin to experiment with the various schools of ski technique. Try 'em all, don't just confine your research to the current vogue.

The ultimate goal of the recreational skier is to ski any slope, under any snow condition confidently and well. This can be accomplished easier, if instead of committing yourself slavishly to one style, you are familiar with many.

There will be times when the turns of a Wedlin skier, a style ideal for packed slopes, wouldn't stand you as good stead in heavy, fresh snow, as a stem of the old Arlberg style.

Develop your own style, using what you want from all sources. Don't fall for the exaggerated, phony styles that so often predominate the packed slopes. Learn 'em all and develop the natural style that is best suited to you!

Two Big Cage Tournaments Are Scheduled in Area

Basketball tournaments are on tap throughout the central county area this weekend as Miramonte High School hosts its annual pre-season competition for the members of the Foothill League and Mt. Diablo and Pleasant Hill Highs are co-hosts of a second tourney.

The Red Devils and the Rams will be co-sponsoring a unique two nights of basketball, with Red Bluff High School and St. Ignatius High School of San Francisco furnishing the opposition. Both tournaments will be played tonight and tomorrow night.

FROM THE PLAY in the Miramonte tournament, which has become a tradition despite its youth, area fans should get a good preview of what's in store in league play.

Six games are on tap tonight, beginning at 5:30 o'clock, and another similar round will be played tomorrow night, starting at the same time. The games will be played according to standard rules, except that each game will be played in two 10-minute halves instead of in four regulation eight-minute quarters.

The tournament, once called the Miramonte Jamboree, is in its fourth year, with Las Lomas, Miramonte and Acalanes winning the prior titles in that order. The play this year finds Las Lomas, Piedmont and Miramonte rated as a toss up to cop the title, with Acalanes as the dark horse.

Team games to date have been limited in number and as a result the dope bucket is on the empty side.

ALL FOOTHILL League members will take part, which means Acalanes, Alhambra, Las Lomas, Miramonte, San Ramon and Piedmont, in the two nights of play.

Two all league selections last year will be seen in action when Piedmont's Rick Prestwood and Bill Caldwell of Miramonte take to the floor.

Bob Nichols of Las Lomas and Jack Gilbert of Miramonte were two second team players last year, but figure to rate high in chances for the top club this season.

Caldwell and Nichols both wound up on the first team on the all tournament selection last year and on the basis of performance to date figure to have a good chance to repeat.

SCHEDULE for the two nights is as follows: Today, 5:30, Acalanes vs. San Ramon; 6:15, Piedmont vs. Las Lomas; 7, Alhambra vs. Miramonte; 7:45, Acalanes vs. Las Lomas; 8:30, Alhambra vs. San Ramon; 9:15, Piedmont vs. Miramonte.

Tomorrow: 5:30, Las Lomas vs. Alhambra; 6:15, Piedmont vs. Acalanes; 7, Miramonte vs. San Ramon; 7:45, Piedmont vs. Alhambra; 8:30, Las Lomas vs. San Ramon; 9:15, Acalanes vs. Miramonte.

IN THE Pleasant Hill-Diablo tourney, play begins tonight on the Mt. Diablo court with the Ram five meeting Red Bluff at 7:30 o'clock. The Diablo-St. Ignatius game will follow. Tomorrow night, beginning at the same time, the play will be reversed on the Pleasant Hill hardwoods, with Diablo-Red Bluff the first game.

St. Ignatius will commute from San Francisco for the two games, while Mt. Diablo players will have the Red Bluff team members as their house guests overnight.

A special pre-game dinner for all players will be held at the Pleasant Hill multi-purpose room at 4 p.m. tomorrow. An added attraction will be the selection of an outstanding team and five all-star players, who will receive trophies.

The event is officially called the "Mid-Valley Classic" and is put on to foster interest in basketball and to promote good feeling among the contestants.

Novice Wrestling Bout Tomorrow

The Foothill Division will hold its annual novice wrestling tournament tomorrow with Las Lomas as the host school.

The meet will bar seniors and will be only for those who are in their first year of wrestling. Better than 100 participants are expected to be on hand from Acalanes, Las Lomas, Del Valle, Miramonte and San Ramon.

Weigh-in time will be between 8 and 9 a.m., with the first boys taking to the mat around 10 o'clock and running throughout the day.

Ram Five Upsets Hayward

The Pleasant Hill Rams upset the Hayward Farmers Friday night as they led all the way to cop a 51-44 victory.

Coach Art Poulin's Pleasant Hill five was off to a fast start as they grabbed a 12-7 first quarter lead and, while Hayward closed the gate part way in the second period, they still trailed, 19-17, at the halfway mark.

Hayward did outscore the home club, 17-16, in the third quarter, but the issue was decided once and for all in the fatal fourth canto, as they picked up a sweet 16 points to the oppositions' 10, to win going away, 51-44.

The Rams had a pair of players in the double digits as Bob Jensen massaged the hoop for a nifty 18 points while teammate Dick Dole bagged 11.

Viking Cagers Traveling Today, Return Monday

With a respectable 2-1 mark under their collective belt, Diablo Valley College's Viking cagemen travel to Modesto tonight for a game against the Modesto Junior College Pirates.

The Vikings suffered their first loss of the young season Tuesday night at the hands of the Contra Costa College Comets, who were fresh from a big victory over the University of California freshmen.

IN THE GAME played at Richmond, the strong Comets downed the local crew, 59-41, as the Viks' high scorer, team captain Don Montgomery, netted 16 points. The halftime score at Richmond was Contra Costa 34, Diablo Valley 22.

In last season's non-conference game against the Modesto Pirates, Diablo Valley came out on top, 75-57.

The Vikings return to their home court Monday night, when they will meet Sacramento City College in another practice contest. The Coast Conference Tournament opens at Vallejo Thursday and will continue through next weekend.

In their initial game last Thursday, the Vikings traveled to Kentfield, the home of College of Marin, where they took a nine-point halftime advantage and went on to win, 64-50.

COACH Charlie Karp's crew came back the next night to defeat the Santa Rosa Bear Cubs on the home court, 61-45, despite being behind 22-19 at the half.

Montgomery was high scorer in both those games, with identical 17-point marks. He was amazingly accurate at the free throw line, missing only once in his first 18 attempts.

Against Santa Rosa, Bill Albert, a forward from Lafayette, was the team's second highest scorer with nine points.

CAN BLOOM AGAIN

The mortality rate among Christmas gift plants is needlessly high. People get them, "ooh and ah" over them and expect them to take care of themselves. Don't forget that these same blooming specimens will live to bloom again and again if you take care of them. Plenty of water is the first need and can best be supplied if you occasionally sink the pot in a tub of water long enough for the root ball to soak through.

Dons' Jayvee Grapplers Defeat Young Trojans

The Acalanes junior varsity wrestling team defeated Del Valle in a meet held at Del Valle Tuesday afternoon, with the final tally reading 36-16.

The Del Valle team, with only frosh and soph competitors, gave a good account of themselves and showed definite promise for the future.

Individual match results were as follows:

103, Paul Christensen, DV, threw Chris McNulty, A; 112, Dave Sharon, A, threw Bill Kennedy, DV; 120, Tim Fox, A, threw Chuck Nungester, DV.

127, Ramon Escobeda, A, won by default from Ross Brown, DV; 133, Frank Broadhead, A, threw Steve Tengstedt, DV; 138, Mike Terry, A, threw Jim Christman, DV.

Diablo Valley Will Host State JC Golf Tourney

The 1961 California state junior college golf tournament will be hosted by Diablo Valley College at the beautiful Castlewood Country Club in Pleasanton next spring, according to Hal Buffa, DVC golf coach and chairman of the state tournament.

Buffa said, "Approximately 100 boys will be competing. Castlewood has two championship courses plus a nine hole pitch and putt, which is ideal for taking such a heavy load of golfers. In the past we usually had to find two separate clubs."

Sixty-two California junior colleges will be competing in their eight state conferences, each trying to finish first, second, or third in their respective conference in order to qualify for the state tournament, Buffa explained.

The outstanding five medalists from each conference will also be invited to compete, according to Buffa.

49ers Could Bring Area First Pro Grid Title

By ERWIN MATTSON

The 49ers are making history on the local grid front as they have come with a bang in recent weeks and currently find themselves in a three-way tie for the top spot with the Green Bay Packers whom they meet this Saturday and the Baltimore Colts, whom they tackle next week.

A pair of wins would clinch the crown and one win or a win and a tie could do it if the chips fall right.

A championship would be a first for the 49ers, who have come close but never quite made it, thanks largely to the fact that they have slowed down in the home stretch drive.

This year they appear to beat the best and with all hands healthy and willing, could go all the way, although the road is rough and rocky and the breaks will have to be right.

One thing certain, it will be a packed house.

The Oakland Raiders started well, but have had problems in recent weeks. They still are on thin ice and things will have to pick up financially if they are to make it, as many who proclaimed they are prepared to lose money are beginning to wonder just how much they are prepared to lose!

The 49ers' late success has been attributed to a large part to their new offensive formation, which has had many fancy names tacked on to it, such as "shotgun offense," double wing, etc.

The fact remains that it is not a new creation but an adaptation of one that has been used many times in the past. It is a form of a spread that utilizes the backs along with the ends as pass receivers.

The "T" formation has lost much of its effectiveness, particularly in some pass situations, such as third and 15, as the defense has caught up with it.

Look for a lot of experimentation with offense by the pros in the coming year.

The spread does create definite defensive problems, particularly when the passers are needle sharp as in the pro ranks, plus the fact many are capable runners on their own.

The 49ers are really hitting the headlines and as a result, little space is left to the Oakland Raiders, who unfortunately need all the help they can get if they are to make a go of it.

The odds are that Eddie Erdalatz, the Raiders' coach, will seek greener pastures next fall, due to the fact that he and management have been miles apart in many things and Eddie isn't one who goes much for compromising.

Word has just come through that Ed "Slip" Madigan, former Notre Dame great who was for years the head man at St. Mary's College when their grid games were one of the nation's best, is in the hospital and sidelined with a heart attack.

In recent years he has operated as a most successful builder in the Concord area.

"Slip" gave me my first job as wrestling and boxing coach at St. Mary's College back in 1931. I had the opportunity to observe him at work as a coach first hand, and will always remember his ability to handle and work with his athletes.

He always got 110 per cent out of them. His half time talks were on a par with those of the famous Knute Rockne, which is understandable as he played under him.

His friends are legion and he is one of the Bay Area's most widely known and beloved sports figures. It is to be hoped that his recovery is a speedy one and that he will soon be back on the job.

Matador Coach Has College Hero

Bobby Brooks, the persevering, long-suffering coach of the Miramonte High football aggregations, at last can boast (and does) of a product who has gone on to make an athletic mark in college.

The hero in Brooks' eyes is Bob Hudson, who was more noted for his basketball and tennis ability than for his footballing at the young Orinda school.

Hudson, a 6-2, 188-pounder, started three games at right end for the University of California freshmen before incurring a concussion in the UCLA contest at Berkeley. Bob was ready to resume practice two weeks later, but was ruled out of further contact for the season by the team physician.

That unforunate mishap at least gave Hudson a better chance than the other freshman gridders at making the Cub basketball squad, on which he is serving under Bob Blake.

Hudson will be remembered as a hot-shot forward for the Matadors, who were kept from a championship in 1958 principally by a raft of injuries.

It is no accident that Hudson has a bright future ahead of him in Cal sports. Not only was Brooks a football and rugby star at Berkeley in the early '50s, but Bob's father is Dr. Miles Hudson, who is embarking on his 22nd season of coaching rugby at his alma mater, California.

Like his father, Bob, who spent six months in the Marine Corps between Miramonte and UC, is aiming to be a dentist.

When pruning roses—whether you do it late this month or in January—remember to strip off all leaves that haven't fallen of their own accord. The shrubs seldom go completely dormant in most California climates; and any leaves left are carriers for dormant fungus spores and hibernating pests such as thrips. Besides, who wants last year's leaves, anyway?

It's Time Now To Think of Decorating for Christmas

By CONNIE PIKE

That glittering season is upon us—only two weeks and two days. You can tell by all the party invitations. You can stick your head under the blankets and pretend, you can ignore the carol singing and the crowds, but you can't stop it.

The children begin, "When are we getting our Christmas tree? The stores have been decorated for a month and everybody else has their tree up." We're compelled to think of decorating for the holidays.

Getting out the Christmas things is the first project. They're stored in a footlocker in the garage, and on top of it there's an old trunk full of what must be lead weights.

ON TOP of that are suitcases we use every three or four years, stuffed full of old photographs and maps, and including three Japanese prints we bought 11 years ago.

We never found just the right place to hang them, but they have a great potential, so we don't throw them away.

Sitting on top of all are two aquarium tanks full of nails. They used to be full of guppies, but they ate each other. Eyeing this stack I make a note to put the garage in better order, when I've found the right place for the Japanese art.

"We'll have to get Daddy to move some of these things," I explain to the children. "Tomorrow, for sure, we'll start decorating."

THIS IS A big disappointment but they manage to bear up until 5:30, when they pounce on the father.

Unfortunately he has had a very bad day at the office. We listen sympathetically while he tells us he'll probably be fired tomorrow, we'll go bankrupt and there won't be any Christmas.

So, he finishes up grandly, forget about getting down the Christmas things.

After dinner he feels better and we all troop out to the garage, but when he faces the formidable tower, he loses heart again.

"I cannot—positively cannot—understand why we must collect these useless things. Clutter, clutter, clutter. It's enough to drive a man mad," he raves.

We keep absolutely quiet, and presently he has worked off his temper and has unearthed the footlocker.

REGRETTABLY, he can't get it open. The clasp has jammed. After 15 minutes and 10 tools, he breaks the clasp, smashes his thumb, and the footlocker opens.

The children stare in wonder at the contents. When they regain motion, they unload them and cart them into the dining room table. It's an impressive sight.

Makes you wonder where you're going to eat breakfast.

The evening is spent admiring tree trimmings and scattering old snow over the floor. We all agree it's too late to start, so we'll begin the first thing tomorrow.

When tomorrow comes, there's school and then meetings, and toward dinner time I realize something has to be done with the boxes on the table.

IF THE FATHER has to eat dinner standing up, like he did breakfast, the Christmas spirit will depart permanently. So I pile all the boxes on the family room floor, where we can trip over them a few days before we actually got down to business.

A week later we're still hard at work, until at last the dried weeds and Indian corn of fall are replaced with evergreen boughs and pine cones, and red bells dangle gaily in the windows.

The front door is hung with a handsome wreath. It keeps falling down. Then with the scene set, we go forth to find that certain, beautiful, perfectly shaped, just right, glorious green perennial.

The Christmas tree.

Kaufenberg Re-Elected Builders' Group Head

Victor Kaufenberg, Martinez general contractor, has been re-elected president of the Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange.

He and other officers were elected at the group's seventh annual meeting and dinner dance held at the Concord Inn.

Also elected were Vice-president Ben Floyd of Winton Jones Inc., Concord; Second Vice-president Ted Vanderbout of Martinez Roofing, Martinez; Secretary James McGeehon, Walnut Creek excavating contractors; and Gilbert A. Fitch of Design Associates Inc., Concord.

RETURNED to the board of directors were Don Baldwin, Concord; Fred Lowe, Concord; Charles Prosser, Concord and Danville; Robert Pryor, Pittsburg; Harold Turner, Walnut Creek.

Directors still serving are W. J. O'Reilly, Oakland; Frank Jackl, Lafayette; Robert Scopin, Walnut Creek; William Burke, Pittsburg; Marcel Lescure, Lafayette.

During the meeting Kaufenberg spoke about building and construction statistics during the year and predicted a fair-to-good year for 1961.

His report concerned the progress made by the building committee, which he presently heads, in selection of site.

He said that in all probability the new building site would be located somewhere in the general Concord area since this could best serve the majority of members now and for the next several years.

Contractor services can easily be dispensed from such central point, he said. Negotiations for the site and financing had already begun by subcommittees, and a final decision may be made before the end of the year.

Victor B. Engel, executive director of the builders exchange reviewed progress of membership and services during the year.

He said with the inauguration of the fourth group insurance plan, a life group, all insurance services started in 1954 had finally been completed.

He noted that a weekly construction news program had been initiated in the first part of the year.

He said he had been elected to second vice-president of the International Builders Exchange Executives group which services all builders exchanges in the United States and Canada.

A FAMILY fallout shelter is being constructed by Nemen Coury, Jr., on his property at 924 Carl Avenue, and he invites the public to view it now and after completion. Carl Avenue is off Reliez Station Road about a mile from the Pleasant Hill Road interchange. The shelter is approved by the Civil Defense authorities. Coury said, "Protect your children for the future. Make preparations for a family or community fallout shelter. Let's insure our lives for a strong home front of defense."

Send Schools Underground Says CD Director

"All future school buildings should be built as completely underground facilities wherever the soil and water conditions allow," Will Perry, director of the Contra Costa County Disaster Office, said recently at a meeting in Los Angeles.

He also said a mandatory law should require all new homes to have fallout shelters.

He spoke at a hearing on Nuclear Fallout Shelters conducted by the Assembly Interim Committee on Public Health, Sub-Committee on Radiation Protection of the California Legislature.

PERRY added, "Such (underground) school facilities are practical and would probably be no more costly than the current method of construction.

"The increased cost of below-ground construction is offset by the savings in the purchase of smaller parcels of land.

"Playgrounds would be placed on top of the facility," he said.

He also urged the committee to seek Federal funds for civil defense shelter construction.

Construction of home shelters should be encouraged by the elimination of reduction from the property tax roles of any qualified shelter," . . . adequately equipped and maintained for the sole purpose of offering shelter from radiation."

"IN ADDITION, monies expended in the construction and equippage of such shelters should be declared as exempt or partially exempt from Federal and state income taxation.

" . . . Only minimal building permit fees should be charged to that area of any structure designed primarily or dually for shelter from radioactive fallout.

" . . . It should be mandatory that all new home construction include fallout shelters."

Perry also discussed ways of encouraging industrial and commercial facilities to provide shelters, and recommended that all public buildings be modified to allow same.

IT WAS announced that Perry has been re-elected vice president of the United States Civil Defense Council Region Seven, which covers California, Nevada, Arizona, Utah and Hawaii.

DVC Student Wins Forensics First Prize

Mrs. Florence Davis, a Concord housewife and part-time student, claimed the $25 first prize in Diablo Valley College's annual forensics contest held Friday.

Mrs. Davis spoke on "Medical Care for The Aged" to take top honors in the contest sponsored by the Associated Students of DVC.

Second place and $15 went to Jacob De Graaf of Martinez, also a part-time student, whose topic was "Making Americans Realize and Accept What We Are, So That Others See Us As We Are."

County School Enrollment Is Up 5 Per Cent

Contra Costa's total school enrollment, kindergarten through junor college, has reached 113,891, a gain of 5 per cent over last fall's 108,573, according to County Superintendent Floyd Marchus. San Ramon school districts—elementary and high—led the county's enrollment growth between October 1959 and October 1960.

The three-teacher San Ramon School's gain of almost a classroom of pupils—22 over last year's 65 enrollment—is due to stepped up residential construction. This is local development and not yet the result of the new San Ramon Village, according to Principal Isabel Gans.

San Ramon Valley Union High School District led the high school increase with nearly 14 per cent, up from 897 students in 1959 to 1019. Since 1955 San Ramon has climbed from smallest among the nine high school and unified districts to seventh in enrollment.

Large increases were also recorded in the Moraga School District—up from 287 to 368—and the Contra Costa Junior College District, each of which had a 28 per cent growth rate.

Contra Costa Junior College District's enrollment of 4274 is 950 more students than last year. The rate of growth is substantially above that experienced statewide, which is unofficially reported to be 10 per cent.

Other districts of rapid growth are Pinole-Hercules Union whose enrollment of 3818 is 15 per cent higher than last year's, and Acalanes Union High School District and Mt. Diablo Unified School District, in which the high school population increased 11 per cent.

County-wide, high school and junior high school enrollment was 7 per cent higher, compared to the elementary enrollment increase of less than 3 per cent.

Seven elementary districts lost enrollment because of shifts in population or the opening of new parochial schools, and Vine Hill enrollment remained the same, at 637 students. John Swett Union High School District also declined slightly in enrollment.

New Booklet Available at Heart Ass'n

A 48-page booklet entitled, "If Your Child Has a Congenital Heart Defect," intended principally for parents of children born with heart defects that may be completely or partially corrected by surgery, is being distributed by the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

The booklet, which was published by the American Heart Association, provides information about the rapid advances in the field of heart surgery. It points out that about four out of five children born with heart defects can now be helped by various operations.

Christmas is a good excuse for the family to splurge on that extra something which the budget fails to make room for at other times of the year. If you would make this Christmas something special, give yourself the means to having running water in the garden.

'J. B. ' Scheduled For Geary Stage

Direct from over a year on Broadway and a successful road tour last season, Archibald MacLeish's Pulitzer Prize-winning play "J.B." will play in San Francisco for three weeks beginning Monday, December 19, with matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

With a distinguished cast headed by John Carradine, Shepperd Strudwick and Frederic Worlock, the full New York production (design by Boris Aronson, costumes by Lucinda Ballard, lighting by Tharon Musser and incidental music by David Amram) will grace the Geary stage.

Produced by Alfred de Liagre, Jr., the Elia Kazan production is a modern parable, based on the Bible's Book of Job, wherein author MacLeish combines theatrical effectiveness and rueful lyrical brooding on good and evil in our modern world, with impressive impact.

He uses the framework of the myth of Job, set in modern times, with "J.B." as a successful modern business man, who suffers modern torments. It was called by Brooks Atkinson "one of the memorable works of the century," and it is a play which will live forever.

The author suggests a circus tent, in which two of the show's roustabouts, in the masks of God and the Devil, engage in an eloquent battle for the soul of this pious and rich man.

Demos Picking Nominees for County Group

A nominations committee will recommend a slate of officers for 1961-62, according to Fred Wrazel, president of the Contra Costa County Federation of Democratic Clubs.

Nominations will be made at the Federation's next general meeting on January 19.

Jack Hubner, Orinda Democratic Club, is chairman of the nominations committee.

Other committee members are Betty Brown, East Richmond Club; Frank Kiger, Clayton Valley Club; Mary McKeon, Richmond Women's Club; Rosalie Ross, Kensington Club; Art Schroeder, El Cerrito Club, and Marna Stansberry, Danville Club.

Alternate members of the committee are Dorae Diamond, Lafayette Club; Art Farrace, Antioch Club; Leonard Grote, Pleasant Hill Club, and Grace McNeill, South Richmond Club.

The committee will meet Wednesday, Wrazel said.

He urged all Democratic Club members to advise the committee before then of their preferences as to potential nominees. Offices to be filled are president, vice presidents for the 10th and 11th Assembly District; recording secretary-treasurer and corresponding secretary.

Wrazel said that the committee's recommendations will not preclude nominations from the floor at the Federation's January meeting.

The election will be held at the February 16 general meeting.

Child Epilepsy Clinics Being Held In County

Age-old superstitions about epilepsy is one of the major obstacles in finding epileptics and getting them to accept necessary medical care, Dr. Harry E. Howard of the California Department of Public Health told a meeting of the Contra Costa-Alameda Epilepsy League.

An intensive program to find children with epilepsy and place them under private medical care is now under way in Contra Costa County. Six special clinics a month are now being held in the county at San Pablo, Walnut Creek and Pittsburg.

Dr. Howard outlined five purposes of the project: to learn how many children in Contra Costa County have epilepsy, find the number of children who need diagnostic and medical services, determine the present services available for epileptics, examine the impact of epilepsy on individual families, and improve public understanding of epilepsy.

He emphasized that one of the primary aims of the project is to find children with epilepsy early in life so they can be placed under medical care promptly.

Contra Costa and a Southern California county are the two areas selected for an epilepsy study in California, as authorized by the state legislature in 1959. There are 31 other states with epilepsy programs.

The four-year project in California will determine whether statewide services for epileptics should be included in the State Health Department's program for crippled children.

Mental Problems Are Increasing Rapidly

PROGRESS on the Short-Doyle Act in the county was reported at a recent Welfare Council luncheon by Edward Nathan, at right, psychiatric coordinator. Shown are Mrs. Harmon Howard, Council president, and Don Morrison, program chairman.

Waiting List of Troubled People Is 'Tremendous'

The long waiting list for the Mental Health Clinic services is the community's problem, said Edward Nathan, county psychitric coordinator.

He spoke at the luncheon meeting of the Central Community Welfare Council.

"The backlog of cases and influx of population are two of the prime reasons for the tremendous waiting list at the three county mental health clinics, he said.

"AND UNFORTUNATELY, we can only serve children in our Martinez clinic," Nathan told the overflow crowd.

He stressed that the present facilities permitted only 24 children to benefit form the program with side assistance to one or both parents at the same time.

Nathan outlined progress on mental health since August 1958 when the four-point program was initiated following the enactment the Short-Doyle Act.

Funds supporting the service have been allocated on a matching county-state basis.

The four points cover 1. mental health education which includes speakers, planned films, leader training, special projects—all primarily for prevention.

2. CONSULTATION services to professional staff in county agencies, Mental Health Association, physicians, ministers and school personnel.

3. In-patient services: From 1952 to 1960 beds at the County Hospital for psychiatric patients increased from 10 to 27, with patients there only for observation and diagnosis.

Nathan emphasized that voluntary commitments have greatly increased during the past few years indicatilng greater public acceptance and understanding of mental illness.

. Out-patient service — clinics are locted at Martinez, Richmond and Pittsburg.

"IN 1955 OUT-patients requesting assistance totaled 2000 — in 1959 there were 3000 patients and during 1960 approximately 5000 patient interviews were held.

There is no doubt that if we had twice the staff we presently have functioning with Short-Doyle Act funds, we could take care of more than twice what the need is here in our county," he added.

Much praise was given to Dr. G. Degnan of the County Hospital as director of medical services in Contra Costa County, Dr. Franz Wasserman as program chief of services, and Mrs. Bel Paul as education coordinator.

MRS. HARMON Howard of Walnut Creek, president of the Community Welfare Council of Central Contra Costa County, greeted the guests. Don Morrison of Lafayette was program chairman.

The United Crusade supported council headquarters are at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek. Mrs. Sigrid G. Salmon is executive director.

Don't Cut Taxes, Say Women in Study Session

A reduction in state taxes, even where there is a surplus of revenues, was opposed as "unrealistic" by members of the Concord-Diablo Valley League of Women Voters during their recent study sessions.

Mrs. L. L. (Margaret) Baldwin, chairman of the League's state finance study item, said one of the study units expressed strong feelings in the matter.

She said the unit discussed the question of placing more emphasis on taxes based on ability to pay in financing state services in California.

SHE ADDED, "Although we were supposing that there was so much money, and the state could cut taxes, it became apparent from the start that most of our group strongly opposed a reduction in taxes.

"They felt such a move would be unrealistic—that it would be of short duration only, considering expenses such as the mounting education problem.

"However, in case taxes should be lowered, all units favored a reduction in the sales tax, rather than in personal income or corporation taxes.

"Most of the group hastened to qualify this statement with a preference for exemption of prescription drugs rather than an across-the-board reduction."

MRS. BALDWIN continued, "One (study) unit wanted to reduce excise taxes, but the other two approved the present rates. Withholding state taxes as well as federal met with general approval.

" . . . Although no one wished to cut the rate at which business is taxed, it was felt that the multiplicity of business fees and taxes should be eliminated, or at least reduced, substituting a corporation income tax high enough to cover any losses to the state government.

"Equalization of business taxes is long overdue.

"All units felt that the rate for insurance companies should be increased, with emphasis on investments. Interest in the severance tax as a possible new source of revenue was high."

SHE SAID, "Our league has answered the question of where the emphasis in taxation should be by affirming the principle of ability to pay."

Mrs. Baldwin said the last meeting on the finance series will concern the earmarking of state funds.

"Interest is running high" on this subject, she added.

The local League discussion meetings are held during the year at the homes of members. Final reports are printed for general distribution.

LEAGUE study meetings on "Metropolitan Problems" have been completed, according to Chairman Rachael Feichtmeir.

She said a Bay Area Steering Committee has been set up on this subject.

League President Ruth Funk said that it is time to choose local state agenda items for next year, and deadline is February.

Correction of "inequities" in the California Senate representation has been suggested for study, she said, despite the defeat of Proposition 15.

"CONSEQUENCES of unequal representation" have been listed as including "safe districts," "lack of political competition," "effects on cities," "repercussions at the national level."

The League held a potluck dinner Tuesday at the Co-op Building on Geary Road and North Main Street, Walnut Creek.

Bring Living Christmas Trees Indoors for Kids

There's no denying the charm of a "living Christmas tree." Such ever-green, ever-fresh looks are not to be found in trees off a lot. And, of course, the "living Christmas tree" will stay fresh looking in your living room.

Kids love the idea of a real live tree—one that grows with them and shares their holiday seasons with them year after year. And you'll love having an attractive tubbed conifer to grace your outdoor living area during the other 11 months of the year.

CALIFORNIANS HAVE long made use of "living Christmas trees" for outdoor use. Every year more people are discovering the joy of having them indoors, too.

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, the Deodar Cedar has long been the favorite for hanging outside lights on. Its perfect, conical shape, lacy texture and full foliage have also put it among the top conifers for indoor use. It seems happy in a tub and will serve you well for several years when left in one. Foliage is light green with a silvery cast. Spruce hold heavy ornaments better.

In the spruce family, C.A.N. nurseries offer two lovely specimens for use indoors or out. Norway Spruce has been moving up the popularity scale as more people discover its merits—rich green foliage, full symmetrical form and short, trim "needles" which show off decorations to advantage.

THE OTHER is Colorado Blue Spruce, whose fir-like foliage has a definite blue cast to it. Conical in shape, it is extremely full and attractive.

Of the pines, Monterey Pine and Japanese Black Pine start out slowly enough in life to be of use during the holidays. There is a certain rustic charm in their long needles that many people like, and the natural symmetry of young trees can be prolonged by growing them in containers. Plant them later in the garden and watch them grow to forest-size proportion. You get your money's worth for sure.

Some Bulbs Can Be Planted Now, Into New Year

From what you read in most columns on gardening, the season for planting spring bulbs is already past. But gardeners in the know will tell you something different. Bulb planting can be extended up to and even into the new year with little trouble.

We asked the California Association of Nurserymen about this and were told that daffodils, tulips and hyacinths could definitely be given the late treatment. Time may be of some concern, but not until after New Year's Day does it really become pressing.

THUS, a stocking full of spring bulbs becomes an item to consider for the gardener who has everything this Christmas. We have yet to see the man who couldn't fit another dozen or so bulbs into his plot of ground.

And many's the apartment dweller who would pot up some bulbs for color indoors next spring. Why not pot them yourself and get them all ready to grow?

We can't guarantee that your C.A.N. nurseryman will still have bulbs when Christmas comes around. But most of them have some on hand during early December. Shop early and avoid being disappointed.

IT'S LONG been our contention that bulbs, to be at their best, should be lavishly used. It's far better to clump a group of daffodils together than to stretch them out over an extended area. The same goes for planting in pots. Crowd in as many bulbs as the pot will hold.

And while we're at it, let's repeat some other good advice: Daffodil blooms usually face the sun, so try to plant them where they will face you at the same time. Tulips are better for deep planting than for shallow.

Prune Grapes But Wait Awhile On Roses, Others

Here are items for the gardener to check this week:

You can prune grapes now, but wait at least another month on roses, two months on fuchsias.

Garden tools make perfect Christmas gifts for the man who always puts off replacing worn-out equipment.

Plan Event

The Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents will hold a social hour and dinner Monday evening at the Contra Costa Golf Club.

The social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the dinner at 8, according to Party Chairman Jack Hageman.

Entertainment will include Stagg McMann, comedian from the Hungry I and the Purple Union, and magician Bobby Clark.

Dawe to Draw Acclimation of County, Builders

Bert E. Dawe, president of the Home Builders Association of Contra Costa County, will be honored at the association's annual Christmas dinner-dance at the Diablo Country Club Thursday night.

During Dawe's term of office, the membership has grown to the highest point in the 21 years of existence. Several new inter-association activities were initiated.

One was the first annual golf tournament and barbecue.

Dawe was alternate director on the National Association board of directors.

He also served as delegate to the Home Builders Council of California, a state organization composed of the eleven home builder groups throughout California.

His interest in labor-management relations resulted in his appointment as a director of the Northern California Home Builders Conference.

"The Broadway Tunnel Project, a Third Parallel Bore Through the Berkeley Hills" was discussed by Albert E. Simmons of District IV, State Division of Highways, at yesterday's meeting of the Diablo Chapter, California Society of Professional Engineers.

Simmons is assistant district engineer in charge of freeway design for state highways in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties and is in charge of the geometric design of the Broadway Tunnel and the design of the freeway approaching the tunnel.

He is a graduate of the University of California and holds bachelor of science, master of engineering and doctor of engineering degrees in transportation engineering.

Principal Says Few High Schoolers Are Problems

Underscored by appreciation for close parental cooperation and the general high standards of student conduct, three officials of local high schools described discipline policies and problems for the Acalanes Union High School District board of trustees last week.

James Lewis, principal of Miramonte High School in Orinda, explained that less than 1 per cent of high school students may be classed as discipline problems, and that these are predominately of the annoying, aggravating kinds of conduct rather than the vicious, malicious type often associated with teen-agers.

LEWIS STATED the objective of the school's discipline policies is to develop in the student an intelligent understanding and use of self-direction rather than stringent imposition of iron-clad rules.

"We are trying to make the student responsible for his own behavior," he said, "and appreciate the cooperation of parents who take an interest in their children's conduct without becoming overprotective, and who express confidence in the school's role rather than indifference."

Mrs. Kathryn Taylor, dean of girls at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek, outlined the duties and functions of the dean in the school, stressing the importance of communication with teachers, parents, administrators and students.

"Fairness in dealing with students and a thorough investigation of the causes of socially unacceptable behavior are vitally important in the work of a dean," she said. Suspension from school

...he most common extreme ...y for violation of school ...gulations or state school laws. ALEX WINCHESTER, dean of ...ys at Acalanes High School, ...fayette, listed several of the ...st common disciplinary prob... ...ms encountered by school offi... cials. These include tardiness, truancy, smoking on school grounds and membership in secret clubs and hazing, both of which are prohibited by the state educational code.

Suspension from school is employed as a disciplinary measure, Winchester explained, rather than corporal punishment, because the latter seems inappropriate for high school students, and "would be difficult to impose with some of our larger students."

He hastened to explain that district board policy permits the use of physical means to restrain unruly students or to prevent physical violence between students.

Suspension is imposed as a last resort when counseling, loss of school privileges, and less severe methods have proved ineffective. Suspensions vary from one to five a month in a school of over 1300 enrollment, Winchester added.

The report on discipline was one of series presented to the board of trustees at their regular second meeting of the month. Previous reports have treated the guidance programs of the schools and graduation requirements. Future reports will deal with the school library facilities and various classroom educational programs.

Trustees Review New High School Building Plans

Members of the Acalanes Union High School District board of trustees devoted a large portion of their meeting last week to hearing reports from representatives of Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics, district architects, on construction projects at Del Valle, Miramonte and the Rheem-Moraga school site.

It was reported that the construction of four additional classrooms at Miramonte High School was completed and ready for final inspection. As soon as they have been accepted by district officials they will be equipped and ready for use by students, expanding facilities at the Orinda school.

Details of the grading at the Rheem Center site of the district's fifth high school were reviewed for the board as were plans for paving the area surrounding the multi-use classroom building at Del Valle High School. Contract for this construction was awarded at the board's previous meeting.

Ross Reagan, assistant superintendent for business, presented alternate proposals for the transportation of mentally retarded students attending Pleasant Hill High School, and trustees approved an in lieu of transportation payment to the parents of the children involved.

In other business the board:

Re-affirmed present district policies on inter-district and intra-district school attendance regulations; accepted for study a plan for re-evaluating controversial library books presented by Assistant Superintendent for Education Max Appleby; formally ap-
